Monty's Adventure

Daniel Thompson

Monty lives in the middle of a war zone. Every day, he sees clouds of smoke rise from the centre of the town. He doesn't want to be here.

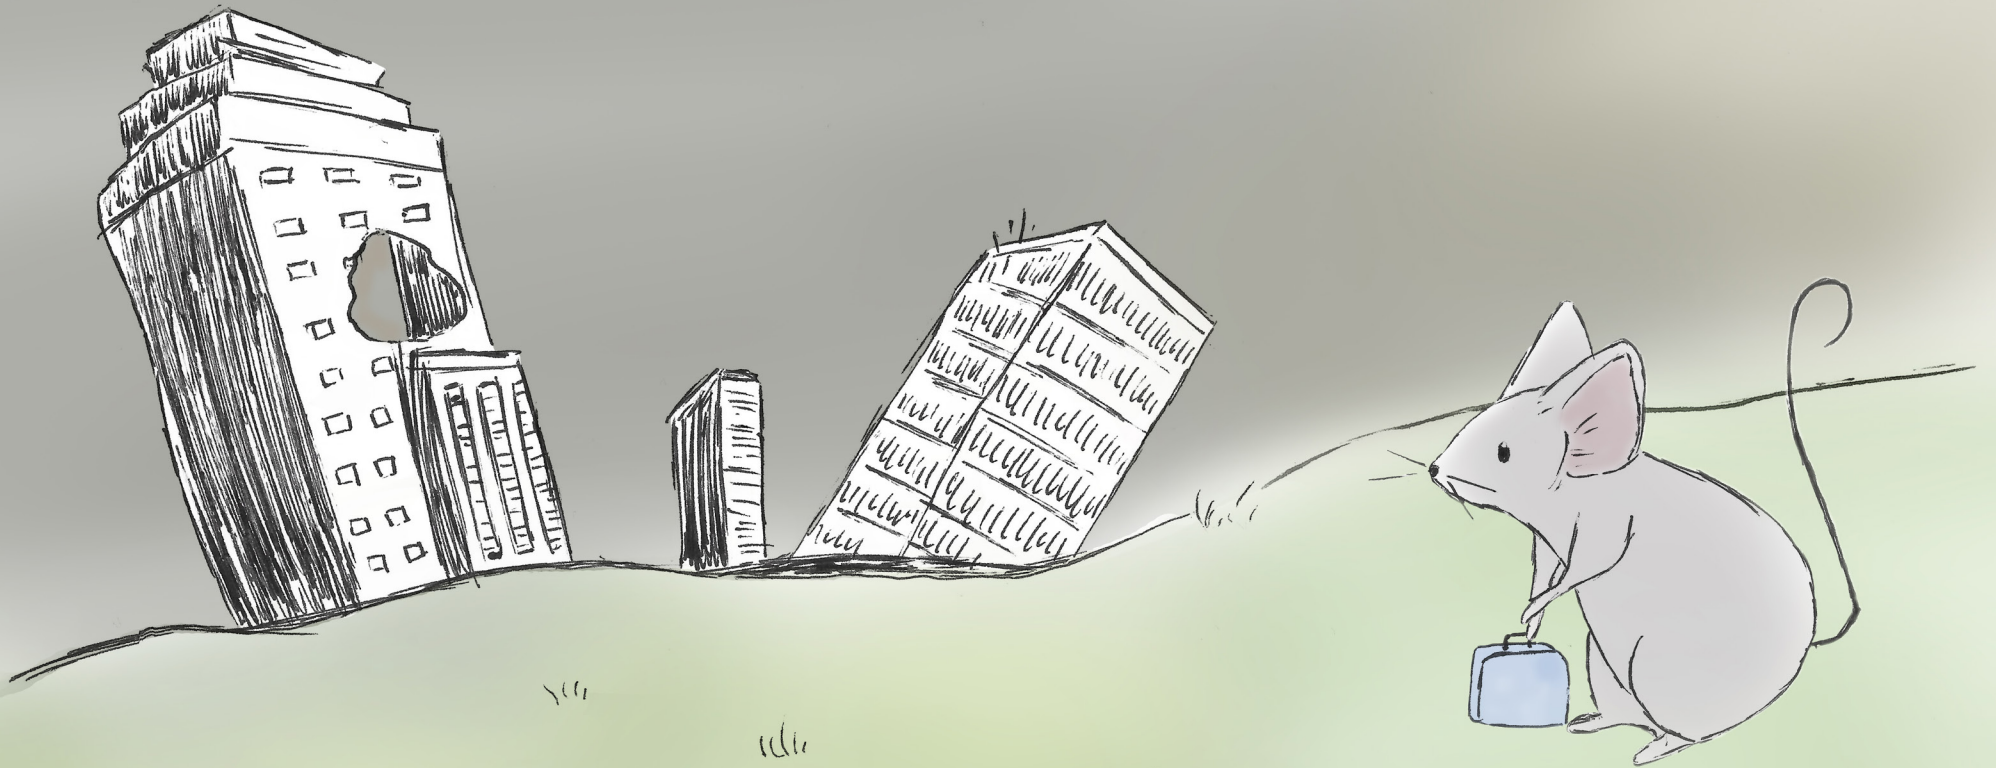

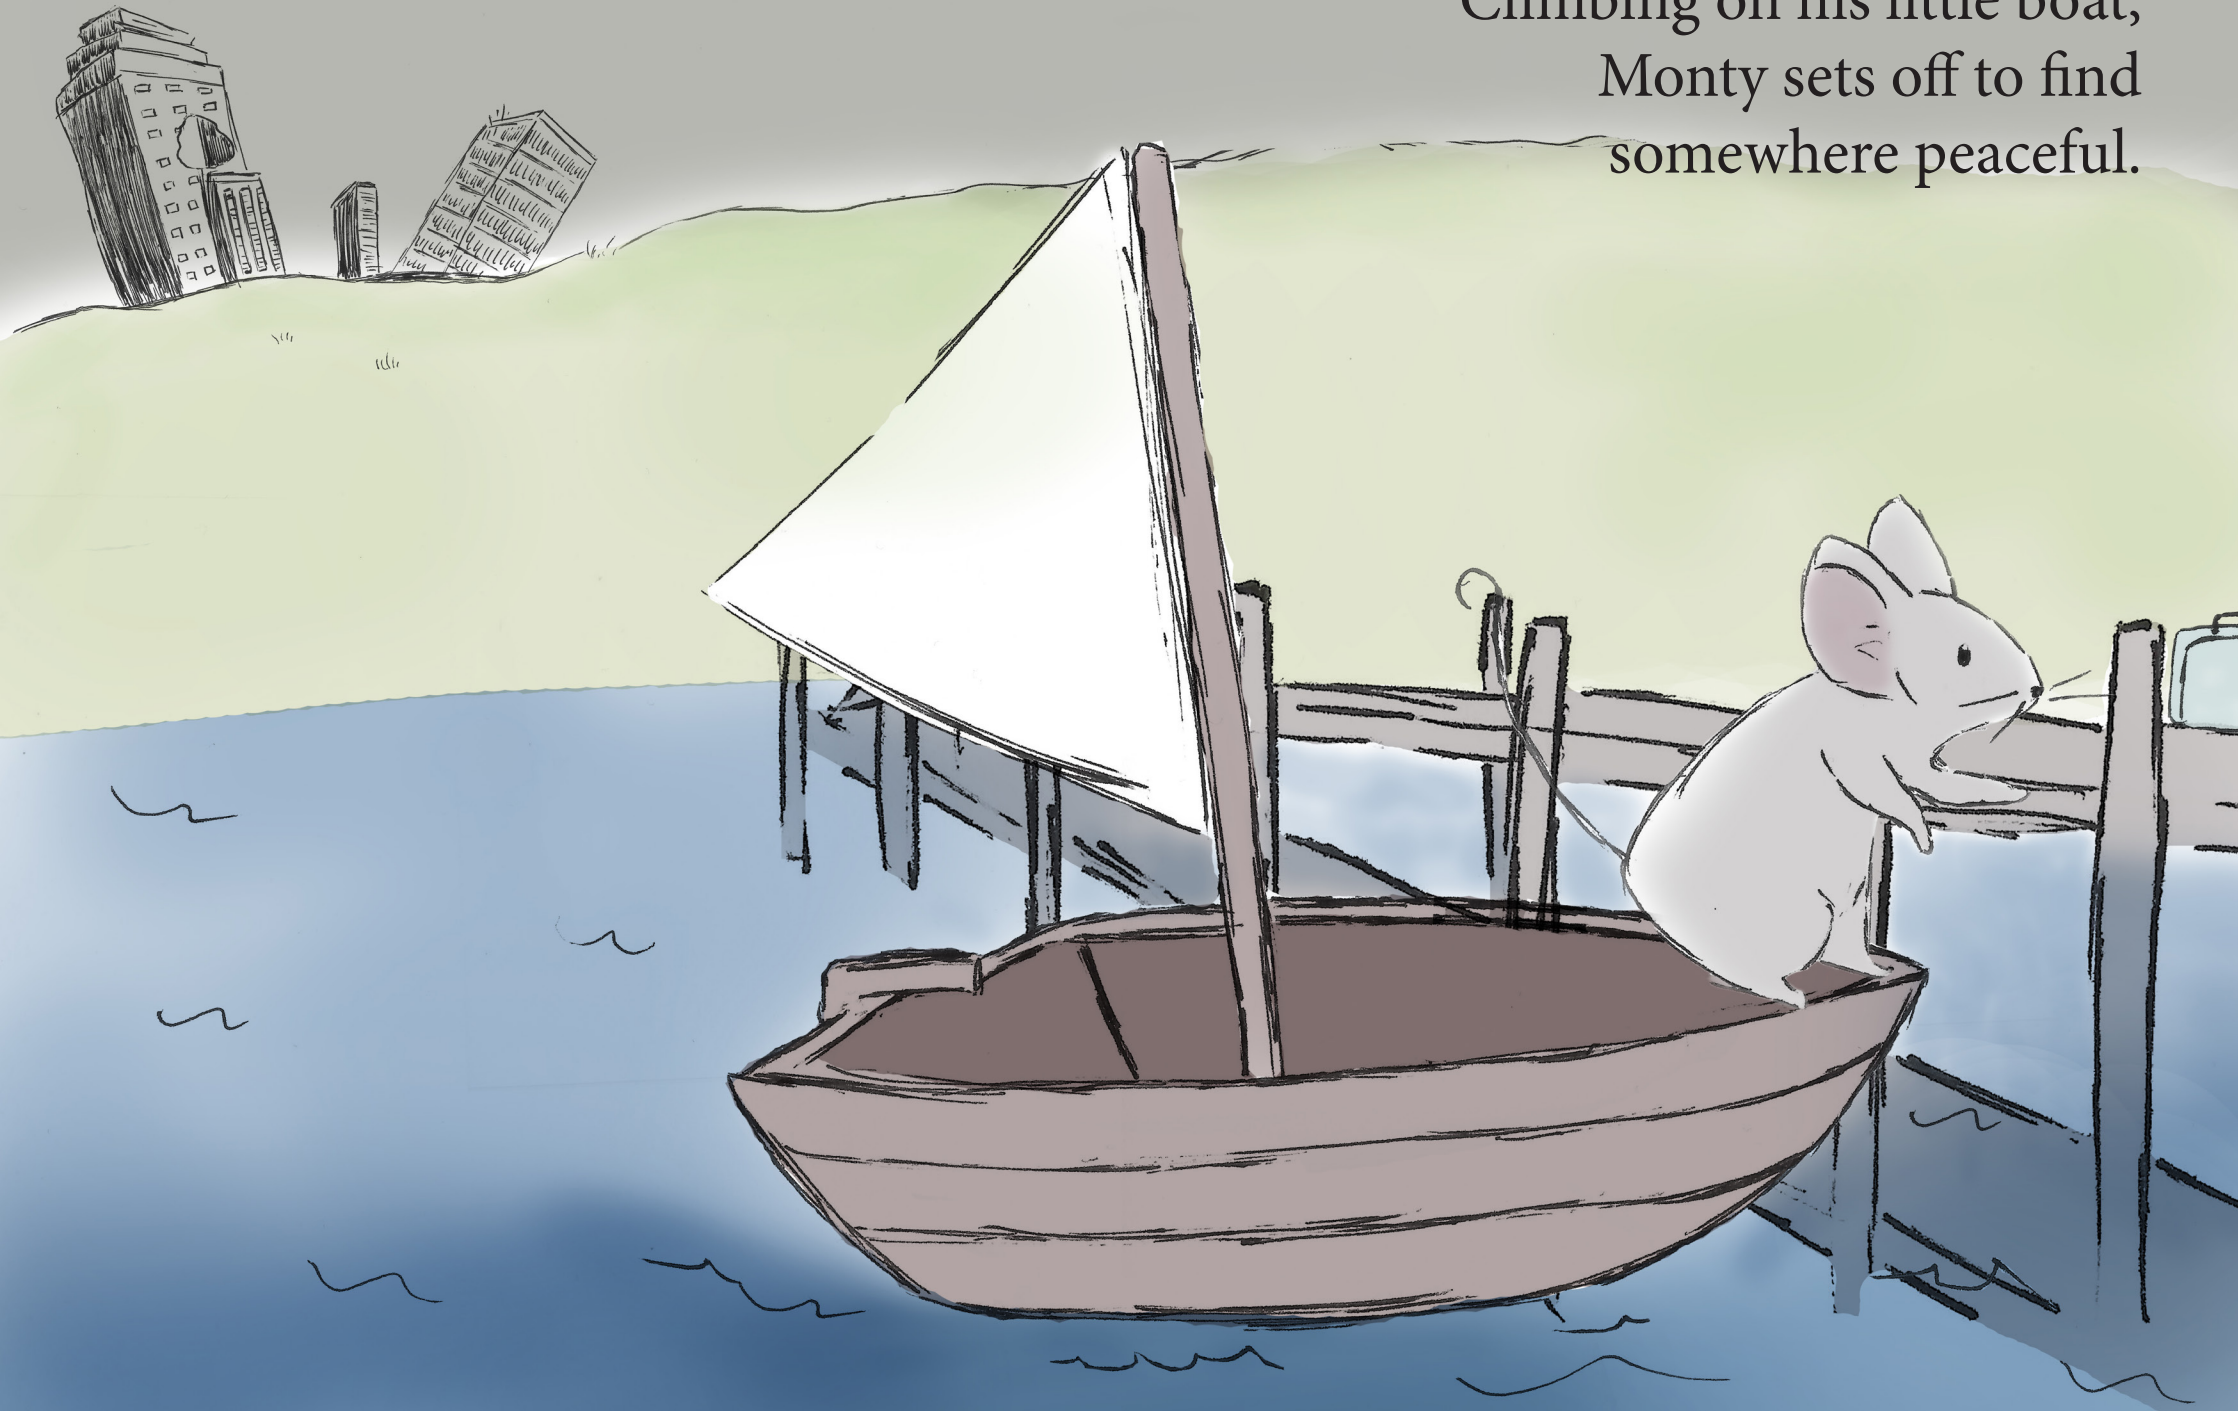

Monty packs his belongings.
He doesn't want to leave his friends behind. But Monty wants a better life, away from the fighting.

Monty walks towards the edge of town. He sighs. He doesn't want to leave, but he wants a better life.

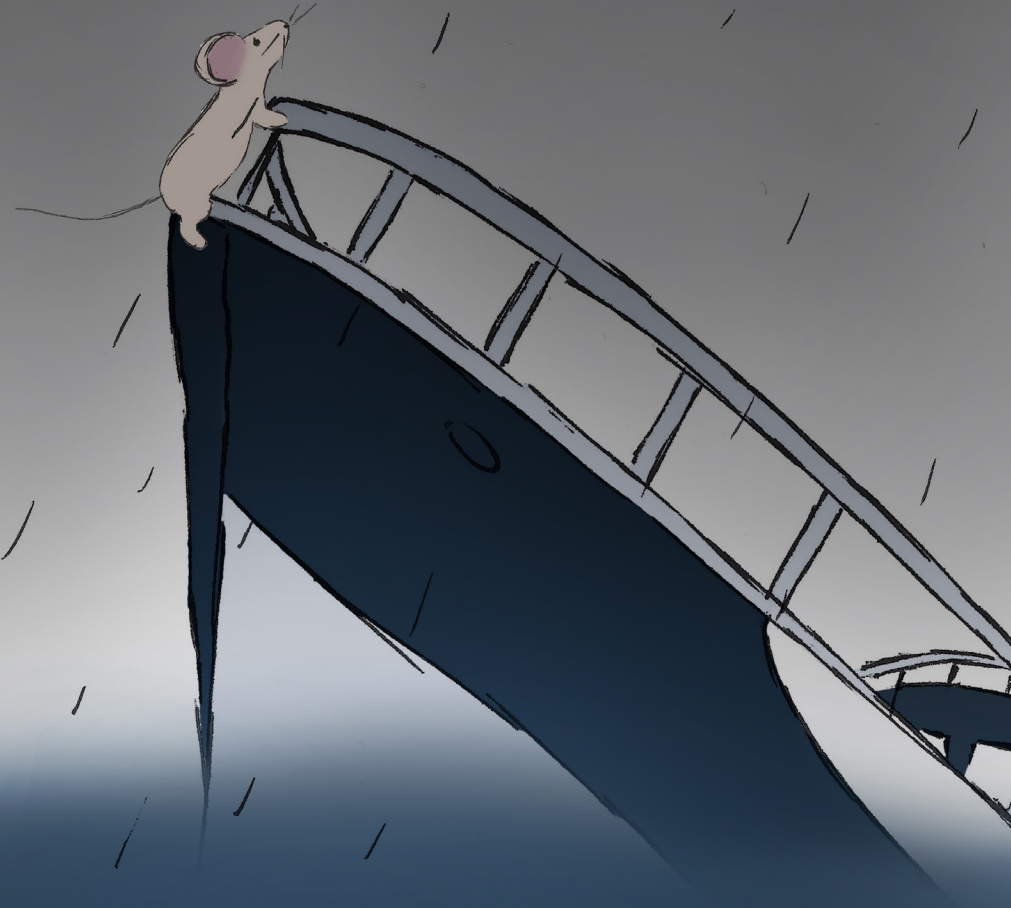

Climbing on his little boat,
Monty sets off to find somewhere peaceful.

Suddenly, the waves begin to rise.

In the distance, Monty sees a fishing boat sinking. On it,
another mouse, the same as him,
but with brown fur.

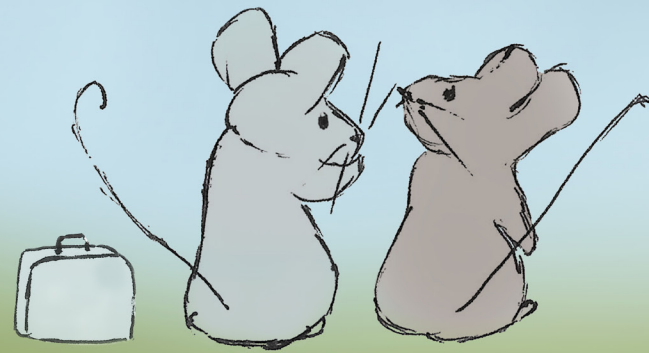

“Quick, grab my paw!”
exclaimed Monty. The mouse grabbed his paw and jumped into the small boat.

“Thank you!” gasped Pablo, the fishermouse who Monty rescued from the stormy sea.

Despite their differences, Monty and Pablo soon became friends, and safely reached their new home.

Monty wants to make himself a better life.

He leaves behind his home, and his friends and sets sail on an adventure.

Even we love Monty!
